Pay to Play

The board of education shall maintain honest and ethical relations with vendors and shall guard against favoritism, improvidence, extravagance and corruption in contracting processes and practices. Therefore the board of education prohibits “pay-to-play.”

A. No member of the board will vote upon or otherwise participate in the awarding of any contract to any individual, firm, partnership, corporation, association, or other business entity which has contributed funds including campaign contributions to that member of the board of education within the preceding one-year period.

   1. Contributions to any member of the school board from any individual, firm, partnership, association, or other business entities doing business with the school district are prohibited during the term of a contract.

   2. Contributions that are prohibited include cash contributions, in-kind contributions and pledges to make contributions of any kind to a candidate for or holder of public office, or any other thing of value.

   3. When a business entity is a natural person (an individual), a contribution by that person’s spouse or child that resides therein, shall be deemed a contribution by the business entity. When a business entity is other than a natural person, a contribution by any person or other business entity having an interest therein shall be deemed a contribution by the business entity.

   4. Provisions of this ban on pay-to-play will not apply to a contract when a public emergency requires the immediate delivery of goods or services.

B. Not later than 10 days prior to entering into any contract having an anticipated value in excess of $17,500, except for a contract that is required by law to be publicly advertised for bids, any business entity bidding thereon or negotiating therefore, shall submit along with its bid or price quote, a list of political contributions made by the corporation, its principals and employees, or others on its behalf, along with the date and amount of each contribution and the name of the recipient of each contribution.
